Save the Date. Save the Musicians.

5th Jazz Foundation of America

A Great Night in Harlem

May 4, 2006 Apollo Theater
Hosted by Bill Cosby

THE JAZZ FOUNDATION OF AMERICA

In the short months since hurricane Katrina, the Jazz Foundation of America has served nearly 900 New Orleans musician emergency cases, not including the hundreds of elderly jazz and blues artists in crisis we normally serve.

HOUSING Thanks to Jarrett Lilien and E*TRADE FINANCIAL Corp. we have been paying rents in many cities for displaced musicians and their children and keeping them from homelessness and foreclosure.

INSTRUMENTS Thanks to Music and Arts Center, Beethoven Pianos and Yamaha we have replaced over $250,000 of new donated top shelf instruments for beloved giants like "Fats" Domino, Henry Butler, Eddie Bo, Lionel Ferbos, Treme Brass Band just to name a few.

EMPLOYMENT Thanks to a half-million dollar gift from "Saint" Agnes Varis, along with Time Warner, we're employing displaced musicians to bring "New Orleans" to schools in 8 states where they have been forced to resettle.

PRO-BONO SERVICES Thanks to Englewood Hospital & Medical Center, hundreds of elderly uninsured musicians have received pro bono operations and free medical care. We also provide free legal counseling.

Why we need YOU!

These great artists have already made your life rich, now we are asking you to give back to them. Thanks to you we will continue to keep this country's jazz and blues artists from hunger, eviction and homelessness and provide them with meaningful opportunities for work.

As always, we are doing it "One Musician at a Time..."
